8th December 2017

Dear Parents and Carers,

Year 12 Report 1 – October 2017

We write to you regarding your child's second report of the academic year. We would be grateful if you could spend some time discussing this with them and making plans for the rest of the year.

The report is a clear indication of how well your child's teachers feel they are doing in the run-up to their mock examinations, which take place in mid-January. Please find enclosed a guidance sheet which explains the different headings, as well as suggestions for how to go through the report with your child. The attitude to learning score is especially important.

To access your child's report, please go to www.go4schools.com and click on 'Parents'. If you have already registered an account, all you will need to do is login to view your child's report. Should you still need to register an account, please find enclosed a set of instructions to help you.

So that you can see detailed feedback for individual subjects; showing how your child can progress to the next level, we recommend that they bring home their exercise books or marked assessments. Even if not every week, this will enable you to see the work they have been completing in class and their teachers feedback detailing how they can improve.

The third report of the academic year will be published in February. If you have any questions between now and this date, please do not hesitate to contact your child's form tutor or individual class teachers where appropriate.

We cannot emphasise enough the importance of regular attendance to lessons and consistently high levels of effort, if students are to achieve the grades they are capable of.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs O. Ballentine
Vice Principal for Student Progress

Mr R. Timm
Assistant Principal for Sixth Form

Guidance on Reports – Key Stage 5

Predicted – The grade a student is predicted to gain at the end of their course.

- This is based on: their current level of work; their teacher's professional judgement as to their likely progression and them continuing their current level of effort.

Current – The grade a student is currently working at.

- This is based on their current level of work.

Target – The grade a student should be attempting to achieve by the end of their course.

- All targets should be challenging.

Attitude to Learning (ATL)

- 1 Consistently works hard and has an outstanding attitude to learning.
- 2 Usually works hard and has a positive attitude to learning.
- 3 Sometimes works hard but has an inconsistent attitude to learning.
- 4 Rarely works hard and has a poor attitude to learning.
- 5 Been absent for long periods so difficult to judge attitude to learning.

Detailed Feedback

In order to share detailed feedback from staff, it is recommended that students take their course folders or marked assessments home on a regular basis. This allows both the quality of students completed work and staff's written feedback, including points for development, to be seen.

Next Steps

Where there is a gap between Predicted and Target, discussions should focus on action points to support students in reducing that gap.

Acknowledgement should be given to progression; if a student is not yet on target but they have made progress this is positive.

Possible action points for students could be:

- Subject specific (from feedback in student's books):
 - Mathematics; practice using integration to find the area under a curve.
 - History; explain the similarities and difference of both the content and provenance of the source.
 - Philosophy and Ethics; give a range of philosophical arguments ensuring you refer back to the question and evaluate the effectiveness of the argument.
- General:
 - Attend after school mathematics revision on Thursday's, until the end of term.
 - Bring specific science revision to do in form time.
 - Read a Spanish newspaper once a week.
 - Bring art portfolio up-to-date by Christmas.
