

PSHE+R	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Year 9	Students will complete a unit about the core beliefs and practices within Christianity. They will look at how believers use churches, the Bible and teachings particularly within the modern world.	Students will be studying a drugs education unit this half term. They will learn about the different types of drugs including the harmful effects of these. They will also consider the law about drugs and the help available.	Students will complete a unit on Being British and core British values this half term. They will consider the five British values and look at each in turn. Students will particularly consider how the British legal system is set up.	Students will complete a unit about Islam and the key beliefs, teachings and practices. Students will also take a brief look at careers including what certain job require in terms of skills and qualifications.	Students will complete a unit based on ethical decision making. They will look at key arguments relating to abortion, euthanasia, IVF, genetic engineering, organ donation.	Students will study a unit on Relationship and Sex education this half term. They will consider what makes a healthy and unhealthy relationship, the law and sex including consent, reproduction and pregnancy options, contraception and the roles and responsibilities of being a parent.
Year 10	Students will be completing a unit on careers. They will look at careers open to them, what qualifications are needed and the progression within careers. They will have the chance to write a CV and covering letter. Students will also look at the	Students will be completing a unit on world religions. They will look at a number of different arguments from different religions surrounding human rights, relationships, good and evil and life and death.	Students will be completing a unit about the law surrounding county lines and gangs. In this units students will also consider the law relating to sending inappropriate messages.	Students will be studying a topic about finance this half term. They will look at what banks can offer, how to read a bank statement and pay slip and how to budget.	Students will be completing a unit on the risks of gambling. They will also complete a lesson on body image. Furthermore students will complete a series of lesson about basic first aid in order to give them the knowledge	Students will be completing a unit on Relationships and Sex Education. They will study the facts around domestic violence, coercion and sexual harassment, the damaging elements of watching pornography, fertility, options open to them post 16.				they may need in an emergency situation.	contraceptives and STIs and how to complete a self examination.

Year 11	Students will be completing a unit on careers. They will look at careers open to them, what qualifications are needed and the progression within careers. They will have the chance to write a CV and covering letter. Students will also look at the options open to them post 16.	Students will be completing a unit on personal finance particularly in terms of how to budget and plan for the future.	Students will be completing a unit on how to stay healthy in terms of examination stress. This will include how to look after their emotional wellbeing, key advice about sleep and a healthy exam diet.	Students will be completing a unit on Relationships and Sex Education. They will study what makes a healthy and unhealthy relationship and what can be done if you find yourself in an unhealthy relationship. They will also study contraceptives and STIs.	Revision	N/A